News Release Date

08-29-2023

Inside latest edition of The Troutdale Champion, you'll read about everything that's going on in your community including:

- Progress on the Sandy River Waterfront & Park Trail
- Details on safety improvements on 257th Drive
- Update on the dog park at Columbia Park
- What you need to know about street tree maintenance
- Downtown Troutdale's Trick-or-Treat event

... and much, much more!

The Champion was the only newspaper published in Multnomah County, outside of Portland, during the years 1893-1896. Today, it is solely the newsletter of the City of Troutdale.

The Champion is published bi-monthly and is distributed by mail to all residents of the City. You can read the entire edition below. If you are viewing on a mobile device, click here to download the latest edition.

Previous editions of the paper are available in our online archive. Excerpts from The Champion are included in various web pages in this site and on our social media channels.
