Priority levels are subject to change based on weather conditions, road conditions, and other factors. Priority "A" and/or "B" roads may require continuing treatment to insure essential travel, delaying treatment of lower priority roads for an indefinite period of time.